Extract from the Minutes of the Board of Managers of the Pennsylvania Society for the Encouragement of Manufactures and the useful Arts.

THE Committee appointed to consider and report on the petition of Mr. JOSEPH ROGERS, Glue and Parchment-maker, report, that they have conferred with him upon the subject of both the articles manufactured by him, and have made careful enquiry of several persons, who have dealt in and consumed his glue and his parchment, and are fully convinced, that they are as good as what are usually imported from Europe—They beg leave, therefore, to recommend Mr. Joseph Rogers to the Board, as worthy of their countenance, and that of the Friends of American manufactures. Whereupon,
It is resolved, that it is the opinion of this board, that Mr. Joseph Rogers deserves the encouragement of the friends to the manufactures of this country.

Ordered, that the report and this resolve be published.

Extract from the Task—A Poem.

By WILLIAM COWPER, Esq.

MAN praises man. Desert in arts or arms, Wins public honor; and ten thousand sit Patiently, present at a sacred song, Commemoration-mad; content to hear (Oh wonderful effect of music's pow'r!)
Messiah's eulogy, for Handel's sake.
But less, methinks, than sacrifice might serve—(For was it less? What heathen would have dar'd,
To strip Jove's statue of his oaken wreath,
And hang it up in honor of a man?)
Much less might serve, when all that we design Is but to gratify an itching ear,
And give the day to a musician's praise.
Remember Handel! who that was not born Deaf, as the dead to harmony, forgets,
Or can, the more than Homer of his age?
Yes—we remember him, And while we praise
A talent so divine, remember too,
That His most holy book from whom it came Was never meant, was never us'd before
To buckram out the memory of a man.
