

Holiday Open House at Historic Elk Landing

On Saturday December 3rd between 3 and 8 p.m., the Historic Elk Landing Foundation will open its doors to a special holiday open house. The 200 year old Hollingsworth House will be decorated for an 18th and 19th century holiday, much like our ancestors would have done. Only this year the house will be decorated using mostly greens, plants, pine cones, and holly found on site, again, much like our ancestors would have done. In addition, we'll have arts and crafts for children, authentic Christmastide music, and refreshments for all. Tour guides will be stationed in every room to explain the decorations, the history of the house, and answer any questions you may have, so there won't be any waiting for scheduled tours. Once again this year, please bring nonperishable canned food for distribution to local charities, so those in need will have a better Christmas meal.

Oh, one more thing, admission is free!!
